About us

No, we didn't spell glass wrong... Glas is the Gaelic word for green and was chosen to represent the color, our Irish heritage and our commitment to be environmentally friendly.

Our coffeehouse began when we envisioned a warm and welcoming environment that would provide quality coffee and offer free Wi-Fi Internet from our wireless neighbor, Cellcom. From this idea, Glas was born.

Feel free to take a few minutes to yourself and relax or surf the Internet with a good cup of coffee. Talk with a friend or come chat with us – we are always up for a good conversation.
